The ninth annual Joe Cornell Expo is back in Metro Detroit. The expo brings together everything and everyone needed to plan a great party: photographers, entertainers, invitations, florists, decorators, gift-makers, hotels, caterers, cakes, valet services, bands, DJs and more.

The event showcases the best of Detroit's party-planning vendors.

The Expo will be expanding this year to include a new wedding marketplace. This new elegant venue will help Metro Detroit brides and grooms plan their special day.

"With the launch of Joe Cornell Weddings last fall, our new venture that specifically tailors wedding entertainment to suit a bridal couple's budget as well as their dreams, we felt it was time to invite our wedding vendor colleagues to display what they can do at our Expo," says Steve Jasgur, President of Joe Cornell Entertainment.

Of the 90 planned vendors, 30 will be specifically focused on weddings and can be found in the art gallery at the West Bloomfield Jewish Community Center, where the Expo is held.

"We are experts in wedding entertainment," says Rebecca Schlusel, Vice-President of Joe Cornell Entertainment. "We help brides and grooms plan every aspect of their weddings and we know a lot of others in the industry. We've always believed in working together with others in the field to make event-planning easy and even fun for our clients."
